The Ankeny Community Theatre is a non-profit organization created to promote the development of theatre in the Ankeny Community. We strongly urge you to not only patronize and support community theatre, but also to participate. There are many ways you can become a part of this organization. Audition announcements for all productions are published in The Press Citizen, Ankeny Today and The Datebook. If you would like to act, direct, produce, or be involved with one of our production crews, please contact one of the directors listed below.

ANKENY COMMUNITY THEATRE BOARD OF DIRECTOR

DIRECTORS NOTES

Welcome to our production! There is absolutely no truth to the rumor that Scott accepted this job in order to be able to tell his mother and sister what to do. The rumor that Steve is here as a referee is, of course, completely true.

Tonight you will be watching the product of a great amount of effort on the part of people both on stage and behind the scenes. Amateur theatre is truly a "labor of love" on the part of those involved -- and your applause and comments are our rewards!

If you have suggestions on how we could make your evening even more enjoyable-- please tell us. If you would like to join the fun -- we welcome your participation on or off stage!

SCOTT FAULKNER Co-Director and (Froggy) - Scott has acted on every stage in Des Moines. He practices Veterinary Medicine. Recently moved to Ankeny and loves it. Previous A.C.T. Productions include "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum", "Carousel", "Annie Get Your Gun", and "Catch Me If You Can". He was also a member of the "Tatus Flower" cast. This is Scott's directing debut for A.C.T.

LARRY EISENHAUER (Charlie) - Larry tried out for "The Foreigner" to avoid the usual winter depression. He was last seen in "Move Over Mrs. Markham", but has also been in "You Can't Take It With You", "The Fantastics", "Harvey", "George Washington Slept Here, and "Oklahoma". Rumor has it that Larry was also one of the "Founding Fathers" of A.C.T.

PATRICIA FAULKNER (Betty) - Pat had her acting debut as understudy to Theda Bara in Hollywood's silent movie hey day. She retired at her career peak to become an Iowa housewife and mother, a much more rewarding career choice. She has just come out of retirement only to be type cast as Betty, a housewife.

ROB LUTHER (Reverend David) - Robert is doing his second show for Ankeny Community Theatre after being seen in "The Rainmaker". Rob teaches drama at Goodrell Middle School and will be seen in the upcoming production of "Grapes Of Wrath" at the Des Moines Playhouse. Rob is single, but definitely looking.

MELINDA FAULKNER (Catherine) - Melinda has a limited background in Legitimate Theater, but her Law Degree from University of Washington in Seattle qualified her for various forms of pretense. She recently returned from 3 years in Japan teaching English to businessmen. She now swears To Only Buy American.

JOHN LUNDSTROM (Owen) - "Swede" is a lifetime resident of Ankeny and a great supporter of Ankeny Community Theatre. He has appeared in "Inherit The Wind", "Guys and Dolls", "Carousel" and "Annie Get Your Gun". He also is a member of ACT II. John is married to Joyce and has eight children.

CHAD HOCH (Ellard) - Chad is a graduate of Ankeny High School. He has been in numerous plays, but is making his debut for A.C.T. He was a cast member in "Cactus Flower". Chad likes tennis, camping, spending time with his 4 nieces, being with friends and being an actor most of all.

STEVE STONE (Co-Director) - Steve signed on to help with the show by trying to keep all the Faulkners under control. He was last seen on our stage as Hysterium in A.C.T.'s Dinner Theatre production of "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum". Steve has many other shows to his credit, both for A.C.T. and The Des Moines Community Playhouse. Steve is a Pension Consultant for Bryton Management in West Des Moines. At home he is surrounded by females with his wife Beverly, two daughters and two step-daughters.
